

Tired and Overstrained Nerves are Given Strength and Vigor by PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Spring Medicine

M. Elizabeth Messick, Emerson Institute, Mobile, Alabama, writes:

"I was very weak and extremely nervous. For several months I used prescribed tonics to no avail. I declared the first dose of Paine's Celery Compound made me feel better and was laughed at, but the Compound brought me the desired strength, and in the fall I returned to school.

"I am now in the Home Missionary Work among the Freedmen of the South. Never one year could I have finished without Paine's Celery Compound. At home we have a large family and use the Compound constantly in the spring. We owe much to your medicine.

Paine's Celery Compound makes nerve fibre, nerve force, restores the bodily health.

FACTS ABOUT SARDINES.

The Greater Part of This Country's Consumption Now Packed Here.

Formerly the sardines consumed in this country were all imported from France. Now about three-quarters of the sardines eaten in the United States are put up here, the chief center of the sardine industry in the United States being the eastern coast of Maine, though some sardines are now put up on the coast of California. The packing of sardines in this country was begun about 1885.

Thousands of people now find employment in one part and another of the work in catching fish, in making cans and in canning and packing and marketing and so on.

Sardines are put up in greater variety than formerly, there being nowadays sardines packed in tomato sauce, sardines in mustard, spiced sardines and so on, but the great bulk of sardines, both imported and domestic, are still put up in oil. Sardines are put up also in a greater variety of packages than formerly, there being, for example, various sizes and shapes of oval tins, and some French sardines are imported in glass, but as the great bulk of all sardines are still put up in oil, so the great bulk of them are still put up in the familiar flat boxes, the great majority of these being of the sizes known as halves and quarters and far the greater number of these being in quarters. Sardines are packed 100 tins in a case, and the consumption of sardines in this country is roughly estimated at from 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 cases annually.

Like canned goods of every description, sardines are cheaper now than they formerly were, and American sardines are sold for less than the imported. American sardines are now exported from this country to the West Indies and to South America.—New York Sun.

FEARFUL DEATH OF WOMAN.

She Dies For Lack of Nourishment and Attention.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., April 12.—The body of Laura McClain was found in a bag in Warren street last night. She had died unattended. The woman came here from Humboldt, Tenn., two months ago. She was about 35 years old and well dressed. She lived alone and nobody seems to know anything of her condition. She grew worse every day and for over a week was not known to leave the house. The coroner's physician says death was caused by insufficient nourishment and physical neglect. The jury found a verdict accordingly. An effort will be made to locate the woman's relatives before interring the body.

Looked at Child and Died.

TALBOTTON, Ga., April 13.—A tragic incident marked the funeral of little Golden Knevels, a bright 10-year-old daughter of H. C. Knevels of Columbus at this place Wednesday. The little girl had been a constant part of her life with her grandmother, Mrs. Wimberly, here. One of Mrs. Wimberly's servants, a typical ante-bellum type, had nursed the child and was greatly attached to her. When the little girl lay in the casket the old woman went to take a last look at her. As she raised the lid of the casket she fell dead on the spot. The doctors said it was heart failure.

Prosecution Fails to Convict.

CONSUMERS, S. C., April 13.—The prosecution of Obed W. A. Neal, ex-superintendent of the penitentiary has fallen flat. There were three indictments backed by facts of evidence before the legislative investigation committee. On one count the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty on account of a technicality. The second indictment was quashed on account of another legal technicality, and the third indictment was not pushed. It was not dropped, because the solicitor objected to that. In the absence of the solicitor it was continued, and that is the end of it.

Probable Fatal Fire.

NEW YORK, April 13.—A probably fatal fire occurred at 87 Clinton street. Hyman Heller, a tailor, occupied a store on the ground floor and lived in the rear with his wife and two children. The windows of the living rooms are protected by iron bars, making exit impossible. When the firemen and police finally gained entrance to the living rooms the father, mother and two children were found unconscious, the two adults being badly burned.

Woman Burned to Death.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., April 13.—Mrs. John Sims, a prominent woman of New Edinburgh, Cleveland county, met a horrible death at her home yesterday. The fence surrounding her home was burning and in her efforts to extinguish the fire her clothing caught fire. She was so badly burned that she died a few hours afterward.

Quiltman's Mill Start-Up.

QUITMAN, Ga., April 13.—The work of setting up the machinery of the Atlantic and Gulf mill has progressed far enough for a trial of part of the machinery. Cotton has been hauled and the mill run on regular time. It will take several weeks yet to finish setting up and adjusting machinery.

Peculiar Accident.

HOKES BLUFF, Ala., April 13.—John Funderberg's little child got hold of a loaded gun in some manner and had it outdoors playing. A pet goat, standing near by, butted the child over and discharged the gun, the lead taking effect in the child's leg, producing a very dangerous wound.

Will Meet in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Ga., April 13.—The Woman's Foreign Mission society, which was to have convened at Milledgeville, will meet in Washington May 16. The change is due to the official announcement from Milledgeville which prohibits any kind of convention in that town for a season.

Church Destroyed by Lightning.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 13.—The Zion Star African Methodist Episcopal church, on Randolph street, near the corner of Union, was struck by lightning Wednesday morning and completely destroyed.

Say Nice Things.

We do not like to be told of our faults.

We do not want to hear references to occasions when we appeared at a disadvantage. Yet we deplore the prevalence of flattery. We make all manner of fun of our friends who display a weakness for that social pest. And yet there are few of us who, if the flattery be not too freely administered, as "with a shovel," do not imbibe it greedily and pine for more.

Every one remembers the anecdote of Dr. Holmes when he was enthusiastically applauded and to a somewhat exaggerated length.

"Don't you get awfully tired of this sort of thing, Dr. Holmes?"

"Not at all," said the dear old man, frankly. "They never clap quite hard or long enough to please me. I presume that I could stand it for hours."—Montreal Herald.

Women Who have the Blues

Despondency in women is a mental condition directly traceable to some distinctly female ill. Well women don't have the blues, but comparatively few people understand that the right medicine will drive them away.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

It regulates the entire female organism as nothing else does. When the dragging sensation and the backache go, the blues will go also.

SAVANNAH, April 12.—Eddie Edwards, a 14-year-old negro boy, is held at the police station on a most unusual, as well as unique, charge. The boy is accused of entering the pasture of E. E. Chatham and milking a cow, making the charge that of larceny from the cow. The trial promises to be an amusing one.

Napoleon in Evergreen.

The great Napoleon, done in evergreen, is the unique statue that stands in the garden of M. d'Aguilleres, in the suburbs of Paris. The statue is a perfect model of the "little corporal" in characteristic attitude, wearing a cocked hat and sword and snuffbox in hand. The features are very lifelike.

The greatest care is necessary in order to preserve the likeness, and the artist gardener spends considerable time in clipping off dead leaves and cutting away an occasional branch. The signature of Napoleon is reproduced at the foot of the statue in flowers.—Paris Letter.
